This agreement, by and between Axelered D.o.o. with a VAT number of SI71451331 and an address of Partizanska cesta 82, 6210 Sežana, SI (the "Supplier") and Project Lab Srls with a VAT number of IT01313650325 and an address of Via dei Mirissa 11/8, 34149 Trieste, IT (the "Client"), also individually referred to as "Party", and collectively "Parties".

2. Scope. This Agreement governs the sale of a service by the Supplier to the Client. The outcome of this performance will be what listed "delivery and deliverables" that will be duly delivered by the Supplier to the Client in the form and within the terms described within the same section, and better described in other sections of this document. Any other activity is excluded with particular attention to what is listed in the "exclusions" section.

COLLABORATION & ACCESS

3. Collaboration. Both parties agree that given the nature of the service the Supplier service strongly relies on Client collaboration, who should promptly reply to any Supplier inquiry and offer any reasonable support needed to use and understand the current state-of-the-art.

4. Systems. The client should grant the Supplier any required access to technologies and architectures (Systems) owned or controlled by the Client and/or any third party on its behalf. Such a System shall remain in function and accessible to the Supplier for the entire duration of the performance.

5. Access to state-of-the-art. When existing, the Client should grant Supplier access to any asset and knowledge related to the current state-of-the-art (including but not limited to code, documentation, or design) and should provide any additional information or infrastructure necessary to use, understand, or test the current state-of-the-art. This includes direct contact with anyone who has been involved with the conceptualization, design, or realisation of the state-of-the-art.

6. Third-party systems. Any third-party system required for the performance of the service should be obtained by the Client and made accessible to the Supplier for the entire duration of the performance, free of charge. The Supplier will not pay for, nor subscribe-on-behalf-of, for any such system. Any such system that may be required has been mentioned in this document (unless otherwise explicitly stated) and the Client herein declares to have evaluated and be aware of such expenses.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

7. Intellectual Property. The result of the performed service will remain the Supplier's intellectual property until the client performs the due payment in full. Both parties agree that after such an event the Supplier will release the intellectual property to the Client who will become the sole owner.

8. Third-Party Intellectual Property. If the Supplier uses or licences intellectual property owned by third parties in the performance of the service, it is the Supplier's responsibility to inform the Client who shall verify the licence terms and obtain and maintain any such licences and authorizations as necessary. This condition also applies to open-source intellectual property licensed under any licence.

9. Confidentiality. Each Party shall maintain confidentiality of all such confidential information, and without obtaining the written consent of the other Party, it shall not disclose any relevant confidential information to any third parties, except for the information that: (a) is or will be in the public domain (other than through the receiving Party's unauthorised disclosure); (b) is under the obligation to be disclosed pursuant to the applicable laws or regulations, rules of any stock exchange, or orders of the court or other government authorities; or (c) is required to be disclosed, by any Party, to its shareholders, investors, legal counsels or financial advisors regarding the transaction contemplated hereunder, provided that such shareholders, investors, legal counsels or financial advisors shall be bound by the confidentiality obligations similar to those set forth in this Section. Disclosure of any confidential information by the staff members or agencies hired by any Party shall be deemed disclosure of such confidential information by such Party, which Party shall be held liable for breach of this Agreement. This Section shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason.

PAYMENT

10. Fixed Price. When applicable, The Fixed Price quote implies that no additional cost beyond the quote can be charged by the Supplier in case the quoted price for the Service does not reflect the actual costs faced during the performance of the Service. In the event of any Modification to this agreement or any of the requirements mentioned herein, the Fixed Price shall be waived or renegotiated. For the Price estimate, the Supplier has relied on information provided by the Client (or other authorised personnel on its behalf); in case any such information is not accurate or not true any Supplier obligations regarding the Fixed Price shall be deemed inapplicable and the Supplier may charge the Client with any additional cost faced during the performance of the service.

11. Price. The Supplier agrees to sell to the Client the service for the price listed in the "offer" section. The Client accepts the sale and understands that due to its nature, the performance of the service is not refundable and in any case shall be paid.

Therefore, no modification can be made to the deliverables or the project specification unless explicitly agreed by both parties.

13. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time by either Party upon written notice to the other Party. The Client will be responsible for the payment of the service that has already been performed by the Supplier. In case of termination, the due amount will be the full price of any completed deliverable and will be computed "pro rata temporis" for any uncompleted deliverable. This also applies when the outcome of the service is partial, rendered unusable, or lacks the properties described in "delivery and deliverables" due to termination.
